

Wheeling W. Va. March 15th. 1889.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox. Superintendent &c.

Dear Sir: -Yours of the 11th, inst came duly to hand, and I have been endeavoring to fix up Mr. SQUIRES' papers in a satisfactory manner. Being a diffident, backward kind of a man, and not having any property here, he finds it difficult to obtain the second Surety, as required by your letter; and if you insist upon it he will have to pay some Company or individual a round sum to assume the additional responsibility, and he suggested that I should write you and ascertain whether the surety he offers would not be sufficient.

And I also desired to submit the papers I had drawn up, or copies of them, to see if they were satisfactory, and get you to make any correction that you may desire, and then I will only have to add my final certificate, and everything will be satisfactory.

Mr. Squires will return to California via. Phila, and will present his papers in person, as I think he fears to part with the old, worn out receipt, till he is sure of his money.

The surety H. J. WADE is personally known to me, and I would consider the bond, as it now is, perfectly good and sufficient.

Please return papers, with suggestions or corrections, as soon as convenient, as he is anxious to start home.

Yours truly.

H. Forbes.

949

convenient, as he is anxious to start home.

Yours truly,

H. Forbes.

Please return papers, with suggestions or corrections, as soon as sider the bond, as it now is, perfectly good and sufficient.

The surety H. J. WADE is personally known to me, and I would con-receipt, till he is sure of his money.

his papers in person, as I think he fears to part with the old, worn-out
Mr. Spurrer will return to California via Philadelphia, and will present certificate, and everything will be satisfactory.

rection that you may desire, and then I will only have to add my final of them, to see if they were satisfactory, and get you to make any cor-
And I also desired to submit the papers I had drawn up, or copies and ascertain whether the surety he offers would not be sufficient.

the additional responsibility, and he suggested that I should write you he will have to pay some company or individual a round sum to assume the second surety, as required by your letter, and if you insist upon it man, and not having any property, where he finds it difficult to obtain papers in his satisfactory manner. Being a diffident, backward kind of a some day in hand, and I have been endeavoring to fix up Mr. Spurrer's

Hon. Daniel W. Foster, Superintendent.

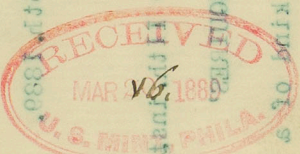

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 11th inst.

Wheeling W. Va.
March 15, 1889

H. Forbes.

Submits form of bond for A. Spurrer, and asks if one surety will not be enough.

Wheeling W. Va. March 15th 1889

[Abstract:] Submits form of bond for A. Squire, and asks if one surety will not be enough.

Wheeling W. Va.

March 15, 1889

Hon. Daniel M. Fox, Superintendent &c.

Dear Sir: -

Yours of the 11th inst. came duly to hand, and I have been endeavoring to fix up Mr. SQUIRES' papers in a satisfactory manner. Being a diffident, backward kind of a man, and not having any property here, he finds it difficult to obtain the second Surety, as required by your letter; and if you insist upon it he will have to pay some Company or individual a round sum to assume the additional responsibility, and he suggested that I should write you and ascertain whether the surety he offers would not be sufficient.

And I also desired to submit the papers I had drawn up, or copies of them, to see if they were satisfactory, and get you to make any correction that you may desire, and then I will only have to add my final certificate, and everything will be satisfactory.

Mr. Squires will return to California via. Philada., and will present his papers in person, as I think he fears to part with the old, worn out receipt, till he is sure of his money.

The surety H.J. WADE is personally known to me, and I would consider the bond, as it now is, perfectly good and sufficient.

Please return papers, with suggestions or corrections, as soon as convenient, as he is anxious to start home.

Yours truly.

H. Forbes.